Nike Zoom Ja Fly 3 Track Spike

FEATHERWEIGHT AGGRESSION.

Nike Zoom Ja Fly 3 Track Spike returns to the lanes with a fine-tuned, featherlight feel specifically designed for 200m sprinters. Updated with a stiffer plate and a new woven upper, the no-sew tip and asymmetrical tongue highlight the modernized design.

- Woven upper construction increases flexibility and support.
- Asymmetrical tongue wraps the foot for a contoured fit.
- Seamless toe tip for comfort in the starting blocks.
- Heel counter sits low on the foot and works with a flexible, lightweight collar to reduce pressure on the achilles tendon.
- Low-profile, Phylon midsole wedge helps provide cushioning, comfort and a smooth transition.
- Injected Pebax® spike plate has a generative design that uses an algorithm to identify where zones of stiffness and flexibility are needed. It has a honeycomb-inspired pattern.
- 8 removable spike pins made of stainless steel deliver optimal grip.
- Last: X2209
Offset: 0
Innovative spike plate is 2.75 times as stiff as its predecessor.

Nike Air Zoom Pegasus 36

AN ICON GETS SLIMMER AND COOLER.

The iconic Nike Air Zoom Pegasus 36 returns with more perforations and engineered mesh in the upper that strategically target breathability across high-heat areas. A slimmer heel collar and tongue reduce bulk without compromising comfort, while exposed Flywire cables give you a snug fit at higher speeds.

- Perforations on upper enhance breathability in forefoot and arch.
- Full-length Zoom Air unit provides a smooth, responsive ride.
- Slimmer design reduces bulk for a comfortable, conforming fit.
- Exposed Flywire cables in the midfoot promote a snug fit at higher speeds.
- Cushlon ST foam provides firm yet responsive cushioning.
- High resiliency sockliner adapts to the contour of your foot for support.
- Waffle pistons on outsole help absorb impact and provide multi-surface traction.
- Reduced tongue weight from the Pegasus 35 conforms to your foot.
- Heel collar tapers away around the Achilles tendon.

Nike Air Zoom Pegasus 36 Shield

AN ICON, WEATHERIZED.

The Nike Air Zoom Pegasus 36 Shield gets remixed to conquer wet routes. A water-repellent upper combines with an outsole that gives optimal grip on wet surfaces, letting you run in confidence despite the weather.

- Lightweight material has a water-repellent finish to help keep your feet dry in wet weather. Sealed seams keep water out.
- Outsole design has channels to quickly shed water for optimal traction. Sticky rubber gives excellent grip.
- Reflective elements help you stand out from the crowd. They are placed on the sides, front and back of the shoe for ideal reflectivity.
- Mesh material wraps your foot in sock-like, breathable comfort. The traditional laces are super easy to adjust so you can personalize your fit.
